During the 2015 Passione Italiana has expanded its offer by importing the rice Gli Aironi - Risi & Co. The experience of five generations in rice cultivation has paid off best in the “Grange” area (surrounding agricultural land of Vercelli) in Piedmont, where the Perinotti family has dedicated its efforts to improving farming conditions on the estate, the Tenuta Pracantone.

In 2018 also started to represent another family winery from Tuscany Podere La Cappella and there characteristic Chianti Classico wines.

Since January in 2018, our company also became representative for artisan pasta, Pasta Armando and or the Serbian market. Pasta Armando is only made from 100% Italian durum wheat from the “Armando” production chain, a new way of being together for those who grow crops and those who make the products. Because Armando prefers deals to conclude to rather than contracts to sign.

Every farmer has his own method and a story to cherish.
